The 50th birthday of the Hot Club de France, founded 1932 by Hugues Panassié, is a fitting occasion to acknowledge what the work of M. Panassié and the Hot Club has meant in the history of jazz.

The acceptance of jazz as an American art form was first acknowledged by M. Panassié and the Hot Club and predated any such awareness in America itself.

All of us who devote our lives to jazz owe a debt to the French who first made us realize that jazz musicians were artists and not entertainers.

George Wein

HOT CLUB DE FRANCE
"Special 50th Birthday"
13 Juillet 1982

Le HOT CLUB DE FRANCE, association d'amateurs de Musique de jazz, a été fondé en Novembre 1932 par Hugues Panassié, et placé sous la Présidence d'Honneur de Louis Armstrong. Ce fut la première association de ce genre dans le monde...

Depuis cette date, les membres du H.C.F. se sont toujours dévoués à la défense et à l'illustration de cette musique, organisant les premiers concerts (1933), aidant les musiciens américains à se faire connaître (concerts et tournées) et les musiciens français à mieux exprimer ce langage musical, à commencer par le fameux Quintette du Hot Club de France qui devait révéler Django Reinhardt et Stéphane Grappelli (1934).

HUGUES PANASSIE, son fondateur, par ses livres de vulgarisation, ses émissions de radio, les séances d'enregistrement qu'il dirigea, sa généreuse impulsion pour faire apprécier le jazz comme une musique originale dont il analysa, avec un enthousiasme lucide, les caractéristiques et les lois, a permis à ses musiciens, véritables créateurs, de se faire reconnaître, dans leur pays d'origine même où il se rendit pour la première fois en 1938 (RCA Panassié Sessions) ... Ayant collaboré à de nombreuses revues musicales, il s'exprima après la guerre dans son fameux "Bulletin du Hot Club de France" dont l'ensemble constitue une somme monumentale sur la connaissance du jazz. Ce bulletin continue son oeuvre, après la mort soudaine de son créateur le 8 Décembre 1974.

Entre temps, Hugues Panassié avait organisé en Février 1948 à Nice, en collaboration avec le Comité des Fêtes et la Radiodiffusion Française, un Festival d'une semaine qui fut le premier dans le monde. Cette idée devait avoir le succès que l'on sait... Des tournées de concert qui visent à une diffusion meilleure de cette musique dans les Provinces, grâce à la vitalité des clubs affiliés, font apprécier des artistes aussi divers que Rex Stewart, Mezz Mezzrow, Big Bill Broonzy, Memphis Slim, Willie The Lion Smith, Sister Rosetta Tharpe, Mickey Baker, Buck Clayton, Earl Hines et tant d'autres, avec la participation de musiciens de notre pays comme Alix Combelle, Claude Luter, André Persiani, Claude Bolling, Guy Lafitte, etc... En Juin 1964, le H.C.F. est reconnu d'Utilité Publique.

Le Hot Club de France a maintenant pour Président Madeleine Gautier-Panassié, compagne et collaboratrice de toujours. Le Vice-Président d'Honneur (ou plus exactement le "Vibe-Président") en est Lionel Hampton. Le Bureau directeur de l'association comprend notamment Michel Perrin, auteur d'une Histoire du jazz (Larousse), S. E. Jacques Kosciusko-Morizet qui eut le plaisir alors qu'il était Ambassadeur de France à Washington de remettre la Légion d'Honneur à Duke Ellington, Jacques Pescheux qui administre et perpétue le Bulletin du H.C.F., André Doutart critique dans plusieurs hebdomadaires, Jean Arnautou, autour d'un film télévisé sur la "Passion du jazz" et quelques autres qui se multiplient pour continuer l'oeuvre d'Hugues Panassié...

Après cinquante années d'effort, le Hot Club de France remercie les nombreux musiciens qui l'encouragent de leur amitié à poursuivre son oeuvre.

Cette journée que George Wein a bien voulu dédier au H.C.F., au sein de LA GRANDE PARADE 1982, en ce mardi 13 Juillet, sera un hommage à Hugues Panassié, en même temps qu'à Louis Armstrong dont le buste érigé sous les oliviers de Cimiez par la Ville de Nice, démontre que le jazz en puisant dans les ressources intarissables de sa tradition, reste l'événement musical du XXème Siècle.
