GYPSEY LOVE SONG
Sung by Harry B. Smith and Victor Herbert

THE birds of the forest are calling for thee,
And the shadows and the stars
are lonely;
And you are there with her blossoms fair,
No bird that nests in the green-wood tree,
But sings to greet you and kiss you,
All the winter years for your sake returns,
But most of all I miss you.

Sleep on, my little gypsy sweetheart,
When you hear me, hear me in the grove;
Sleep on, my little gypsy sweetheart,
When you hear me, hear me in that dreamland
Wild little woodland dove,
Can you hear the note that tells you
All my heart's true love?

The fawn that you loved has a look in its eye,
That tells you: "We are too long parted."
The wild rose falls in the leafy shade,
Its ghost will find you in the leafy shade,
All the friends say:
"Come to your woodland home,"
And most of all I want you.
